EXCITEMENT IN GOLDSVILLE.

Alleged Plan to Kill Col. L. W. C. Blacklock Fails.

Clinton, Jan. 4.—Friday a man named D. L. Boozer, infuriated, it is said, because Col. L. W. C. Blacklock had taken some negroes off his place, came up to Goldville with the intention of killing the colonel. Several shots, it is alleged, were fired into the Blacklock home by Boozer and some negroes who were with him. Then Boozer proceeded to the Blacklock store, where, it is said, he shot and kicked out all the glasses in the store.

Most of the citizens of Goldville left town as soon as the affair started. Boozer was taken to the Laurens jail at 2.30 p. m. He was later released on a $1,000 bond.

ROOF PROPERTY SOLD TODAY.

Lands of Bankrupt Estate Worth About $75,000—Other Sales.

Lexington, Jan. 5.—The largest land sales ever made in the history of Lexington county will be pulled off at the court house Monday, when the large real estate holdings of the bankrupt estate of W. P. Roof will be sold at public auction by the trustees of the estate. The property is estimated at about $75,000, and it is expected that many buyers will be attracted. The property consists of all kinds of lands—timberland lands, farming lands, woodlands, etc. The Roof failure was one of the largest in this section of the State and there are hundreds of creditors. The failure occurred last March and no part of the losses has been paid off by the trustees. Following the sale Monday it is expected that the trustees will make a payment to the creditors as soon as the several matters can be adjusted. Just what percentage will be realized can not be learned. The trustees have been collecting accounts wherever possible, and considerable money has been turned in to the trustees.

Besides the sale of the Roof property the clerk of court has a number of important sales to make and there will be some sales by private individuals.

REV. GUIGNARD TAKES CHARGE.

Entered Upon His New Duties on First Sunday in the New Year.

The Rev. Sanders R. Guignard entered upon his work as rector of St. Anthony's Catholic church on Sunday afternoon, January 5, the first in the New Year, and preached a strong sermon, peculiarly appropriate to the season from Phil. 3:13-14: "Forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Beginning his sermon by alluding to the relationship of pastor and parishioners, priest and people, minister to those to be ministered unto, Mr. Guignard gave his hearers the message of the Christmas-tide and set before them the vision, and the ideal which it brings to the new year; the vision of the perfect life, with the possibilities for each of us for greater service as the days unfold. The greatest need today is for a clearer spiritual vision, that men might seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and realize that "the things unseen are stronger, greater and of more importance than the things that are seen"—that men might be valued for their true worth rather than their possessions—that "a man's life consisteth not in the things which he possesseth." "We need to measure by spiritual values for real progress, for real life of greatest value and to set before us the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." These are but a few points from Mr. Guignard's sermon, which rang throughout with the call to "reach forth to the things which are before."

Monday, the 6th of January, being "the Epiphany, or the manifestation of Christ to the Gentile," Mr. Guignard held a short service, appropriate to the day at St. Luke's at 11 a. m.

Rev. A. E. Cornish Resigns.

Bishop Guerry in The Diocese for January writes as follows:

Was greatly distressed to hear that the Rev. A. E. Cornish, for so many years a priest of this diocese, had resigned his cure and accepted a call to Tampa Fla. Mr. Cornish's resignation following so soon after that of Mr. Covington, at Sumter, makes it doubly hard to lose him.

The diocese has been sorely crippled by these losses, but we must remember that the church is larger than the diocese and where the opportunities for service in the Master's Vineyard are greater there good men will go. Our prayers and best wishes go for Mr. Cornish into his new field of labor.

The Old and the New.

1000 B. C.—For the building of Solomon's Temple.—"Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captain of thousands, and of hundreds with rulers of the King's work, offered willingly, and gave for the service of the house, etc. * * * Then the people rejoiced for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the Lord; and David the King, also rejoiced with great joy."—1 Chron. 29:9-10.

1909 A. D.—Then the parishioners came together to plot for money to build the church. Few people would offer willingly, so they determined to have bazaars and sales of work, with all kinds of amusements, such as concerts, tableaux, raffles (which are illegal), fortune-telling lucky tubs, pink teas, necktie socials and other such like things; also whist drives, dancing, etc. Then the people rejoiced that they had made some money by these means, and offered it to the Lord for building His church.—Ontario Churchman.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Miss Catherine Chappell to Talk About Domestic Science in Common Schools.

The regular monthly meeting of the County Teachers' association will be held at the high school on Saturday, beginning promptly at 11 o'clock.

The county superintendent urgently requests that all teachers attend this meeting. The trustees are also cordially invited to be present, and they will hear much of a helpful nature to them. The meeting is also open to all citizens. The ladies are especially invited to be present.

Miss Catherine Chappell, teacher at Whitmire, will be present at the meeting and make a talk on domestic science in the common schools. Miss Chappell is an enthusiastic advocate of this branch of education, and is eminently qualified to talk upon it. The Whitmire school is the only one in the county that has established a domestic science department, and it is being conducted most successfully. Miss Chappell, who is a graduate of Winthrop, will make a plain and practical talk on this subject, and will be sure to entertain as well as instruct her hearers, and it is trusted that there will be a large audience to hear her.

Death of a Former Newberrian.

Mr. William Alonzo Kinard died suddenly on Saturday morning at his home in Sumter. He had not been very well all the week and had suffered what seemed to be an attack of acute indigestion. He was better on Friday, but on Saturday morning he had another attack, and before the doctor could reach him he had breathed his last.

Mr. Kinard was the son of Mr. Solomon Kinard, of Newberry, and was born November 1, 1854. He was married on November 1, 1887, to Miss Lizzie Kibler, daughter of the late Drayton Kibler, who survives him. He is also survived by two sons Clarence A., an electrical engineer in Pittsburgh, Penn., and William, who has a position in a bank at Sumter.

Of Mr. Kinard's immediate family, his sister, Mrs. B. H. Lovelace, of Newberry, alone, survives him.

He has a large connection and many friends in Newberry, who sympathize with his family in their bereavement.

The body was brought to Newberry on Sunday on the C. N. & L. at 1.30 p. m., and was carried to the residence of Mr. William Johnson. He was buried at 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon at Rosemont, the funeral services conducted by Rev. Edward Fulenwider, being held at the grave in the presence of a large number of friends.

Mr. Kinard was a merchant, and began his mercantile career while quite young by clerking for the late Mr. Andrew Wicker.

He removed to Sumter a number of years ago, his last visit to the home of his boyhood occurring a few years ago upon the occasion of the graduation of one of his sons from Newberry college.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Geo. FOUR—H&N. B. Cromer, Jno. M. Kinard, W. H. Hunt, Jno. A. Summer, Van Smith and W. F. Ewart.

The Sumter item of the 4th instant contained the following:

The many friends of Mr. William A. Kinard were shocked Saturday morning to hear of his very sudden death, which occurred at his home on West Liberty street about 9.30 o'clock. Mr. Kinard was taken with an attack of acute indigestion Friday morning, but had apparently recovered from it Saturday. About 9 o'clock he was suddenly taken ill and died before a physician could arrive at his home.

Mr. Kinard came to Sumter six or seven years ago from Newberry and has been in the employ of Schwartz Bros. and of the Jenkins Specialty company since that time. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Elizabeth Kibler before her marriage, and two sons, Messrs. William Kinard, of this city, and Clarence Kinard, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The body will be taken from here to Newberry Sunday morning on the 9.40 train at which place the funeral services and interment will be held.

The following gentlemen will act as pallbearers: Messrs. C. L. Tisdale, J. D. Shifer, J. A. Clark, S. F. Stoudenmire, L. L. Hunter, E. W. A. Baltman. Special to The Herald and News.

An Alarm That Was Not An Alarm.

Shortly before 3 o'clock Friday morning many persons who were ensconced between warm blankets had their slumbers rudely disturbed by a blast from the power house whistle, to be followed shortly after by a prolonged toot from the whistle at the Mollohon mill, which continued its dismal noise for at least 30 minutes. It was the result of a ladder having fallen across the wire attached to the whistle.

LITTLE DAMAGE.

Storm Friday Morning Created Much Fright as it Shook Houses and Smashed Windows.

The storm which visited Newberry county early Friday morning did no serious damage, so far as has been learned, but for three hours hundreds of people sat anxiously awaiting the abating of the furious wind, which at times, probably blew as high as 60 or 70 miles an hour. Many windows are reported to have been smashed all over the county, and in this city several telegraph wires were blown down across the roadway. One citizen had a narrow escape from injury as he was driving into the city before day. A live wire had fallen across the street. Being yet dark he could not see the wire, but saw it "sputtering" on the wet earth.

Aside from broken poles, some fallen trees and smashed windows no damage to any extent has been reported.
